James Stucky Says, "Rat Cost Me $125 For Plumbing Bills."

"We couldn't tell what was clogging up our toilet and drains. We had to tear up floor, etc., found a rat's nest in basement. They had choked the pipes with refuse. The plumber's bill was $125. RAT—SNAP cleaned the rodent out." Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by I. W. Nicholas, Crabbottom; Highland Mercantile Co., Monterey; McNulty Bros., McDowell.

Obaugh-Armstrong
On Saturday, October 11, 1919, at high noon, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Armstrong was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their daughter, Myrtle Virginia, became the bride of Mr. Frederick H. Obaugh.

The parlor was decorated with autumn leaves, ferns, dahlias and chrysanthemums.

The bride couple, who were unattended, entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus rendered by Mrs. Byron Bradshaw, McDowell, taking their place beneath an arch of ferns with a background of autumn leaves which formed a beautiful and appropriate setting for the ceremony which was performed in a most impressive manner by Rev. S. R. Snead. The ring ceremony was used.

The bride was attired in a lovely gown of white georgette and satin and wore a long veil of tulle with a wreath of forget-me-nots and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The groom wearing the conventional black.

Following the nuptials an elaborate course dinner was served.

The bride who has been living in the West for the past five years, is an attractive and popular young lady, was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents including cut glass, china, silver, linen and a substantial check.

The groom is prominent socially and a prosperous farmer.

After an extended trip to Washington, D. C. and other points the happy couple will reside with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Obaugh, near Mt. Solon, Va. Friend

Missionary Rally
The ladies of the Monterey Methodist Missionary Society entertained and banqueted the young people's organization and Junior society last Friday afternoon.

The meeting was held in the new Sunday school room of the church, and all of the societies were well represented. The program, consisting of special music, some readings and a short talk by the pastor, was first rendered, and then a luncheon prepared by the ladies was served, the lay-out being more than ample to make the young folks happy. It was the first meeting of the kind to be held in the new room, and was much enjoyed.

McDOWELL
Wilson Whitmore, of Natural Bridge spent part of last week with his sister, Mrs. A. A. Alexander.

Miss Hattie Williams, who has spent her vacation here, left today for her work in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. H. E. Bryant is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Brown, of Luray. Jas. Burke, of Roanoke, spent several days last week with his sister, Mrs. W. T. Alexander, who is ill.

J. H. N. Cobb, of Sapulpa, Okla., spent some time here with his wife, who is with her mother, Mrs. Hook.

Mrs. Frank Bryant left today for Staunton, where she will meet her husband, and go on to their home at Leachville, Pa.

Robt. Neil, son of S. M. Neil and Miss Jackson, of Burnsville were married Oct. 4. They left immediately after the ceremony for Richmond, where they attended the State fair.

The McDowell High school opened Oct. 7, with a large attendance. We hope for one of the most successful terms in the history of the school.

The following young folks from other communities are attending school—Eula and Ivan Ralston, of Crab Run, Mason Hamilton, of Clover Creek, Margaret Lockridge, of Flood, Madge and Bradshaw Blagg, Graham and Martha Pitzenger, of Doe Hill, Marion Armstrong and Janet Siron, of McKendree, Ray Obaugh, of near Staunton, and three of Mr. Ambrose Rexrode's daughters.

"Class No. 3" of the Pres. Sunday school entertained a number of young ladies Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Minnie Rogers. XYZ

OBITUARY
On Thursday Aug. 28, 1919, God sent his Angel to earth and took from us Harry Arthur Gibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Gibbs, of Bolar. He was born Nov. 25, 1893, aged 25 years, 9 mos. and 3 days.

For several years Harry has been away working first in a bank in Covington and later took up a government position as time-keeper in the shipyards at Newport News, he also was working in the Colonial State Bank at that place.

He became ill Aug. 21 and was taken to Riverside hospital, where he died, "violent toxemia" or probably typhoid, was the cause of his death.

He united with the Brethren church in 1912 and lived a consistent christian life, thus we do not sorrow as those who have no hope.

Harry was an exemplary young man and was loved by all who knew him. His remains were followed to the station by all the time-keepers in a body. A large wreath of flowers was presented by them and placed on the casket, a large wreath of roses was also sent by the employees of the Bank where he worked.

He leaves to mourn their loss his father, step-mother, two brothers and two sisters, and a host of relatives and friends. He was laid to rest in the Big Valley cemetery on Saturday morning there to await the resurrection morn. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. H. Miller assisted by A. A. Miller.

We extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy, and may we all look to Him who is too kind to err or make a mistake.

One who loved him.
